YADKIN COUNTY

Quilt Trail

The Yadkin County Quilt Trail features unique quilt blocks on barns, buildings, and houses in the county. The Quilt Trail's purpose is to honor quilting traditions, beautify the community, promote cultural heritage, tourism, farming traditions, and agritourism. The trail currently has over 50 quilts lovingly painted and located on various barns and businesses throughout the county. Step-on guided services are also available for Quilt Trail tours.

Maps are available of the Quilt Trail at the Yadkin County Visitors Center located at 205 South Jackson Street in Yadkinville, NC. A digital version of the map can be downloaded at www.visityadkin.com.
